Strategic leadership is a critical component in the effective development of schools. This book focuses on building strategic capability within the school in order to ensure long-term success and sustainability. Drawing upon Brent Davies's extensive experience in presenting nationally and internationally to school leaders, this book distills the collective wisdom from educationalists across the globe. Updated with new references and a significant new chapter on developing strategic talent in schools, the book has been described as a 'must read' for existing and aspiring school leaders.

The book focuses on:

- establishing processes for building whole school involvement
- strategic approaches to build capacity in your school
- building and sustaining strategic leadership throughout the school
- developing strategic talent in schools
- characteristics of strategically focused schools.

This book explains the key concepts and provides frameworks for leaders to apply ideas of talent management in their organisations. The authors focus on talent management and how this contributes to other strategic objectives, such as building a high performance learning environment and building leadership in depth in the school.

In showing how to develop talented individuals for roles and responsibilities in new configurations of schools and leadership, the authors focus on:

- Defining who are the talented individuals in your school
- Developing talent individuals & leaders in your school
- Building a talent culture in the school.
